

URA

LIMITED 50% DISCOUNTED OFFER

To coincide with the new South Africa Survey 2009/10 the Unit for Risk Analysis at the South African Institute of Race Relations has made available ten subscriptions to all its reports, research, and briefing services at a discount of over 50%. The Institute and its Unit for Risk Analysis provide research, advisory, and scenario planning services to over 150 South African corporations and multinational investors. Against South Africa's volatile economic and political environment we bring eight decades of experience in offering clear insights and trends to assist your business in making better fact based strategy decisions about South Africa.

Subscribers are normally charged R29 831 (excluding VAT) for 12 months of access to:

- 1. *The South African Survey. The Survey contains over 750 pages of data and trends on South Africa ranging from the economy, to labour markets, incomes, skills levels, social development, living conditions, crime, politics, and governance. Available in hard copy as well as online in PDF, Excel and as Google Spreadsheets it is the leading source of information on what is happening in South Africa today.
- 2. *Fast Facts. This monthly bulletin is released by the Institute updating 170 social and economic indicators and forecasts for South Africa. It also features in depth policy and legislative analysis. Recent editions have included a critical review of the proposed NHI scheme, a report ranking 108 indicators for each of South Africa's nine provinces, and an assessment of South Africa's performance in meeting the Millennium Development Goals.
- 3. *Eighteen hours of dedicated research support. Our research team and information centre are available to answer any of your data or information queries on trends in South Africa. This service now boasts your own dedicated research assistant and can save you thousands of rands worth of time searching out information on South Africa.
- 4. *Briefings and scenario planning sessions. Our senior staff are on hand to come out and brief your board, management team, or clients on the major driving forces shaping the South Africa of tomorrow.

Be one of the first ten clients to sign up under this special offer and receive 24 months of access to all of the above services for the price of a twelve month package - an effective saving of over 50% while also beating our May price increases. We offer simple once off, quarterly, or debit order payment plans. To find out more email sherwin@sairr.org.za for complete details or SMS Special Subscription Offer or SSO to 082 851 5680 and we will call you right back. This offer is only available to new clients.