IRR calls for extension of ICC submission deadline

The IRR has today written to the Portfolio Committee on Justice and Correctional Services to make the point that the time afforded for submissions on the proposed Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court Act Repeal Bill is too short.

IRR spokesperson Mienke Steytler said: “The issues at stake are very complex and interested parties cannot be expected to deal with the issues in sufficient detail within such a limited window. Submissions will require considerable research and analysis.”

Ends.
